

9 Day Cruise to Koh Taratoa

Explore this world famous area sailing through the awesome Islands of Phang Nga Bay then the spectacular islands and between Phuket and the Malaysian Border.

The places we visit are a mix of seclusion and activity. You'll experience the quiet serenity of Koh Rok and the activity and nightlife of Relai Beach and Tonsai Bay at Phi Phi.

The format of the sail has been designed after years of experience in the area and a wide variety of clients. It allows you the maximum of personal flexibility within the itinerary.

Suggested Itinerary – North-East Season (Nov-April)

Day 1

We meet at Yachtpro's sailing base at the Haven Marina, in the north of Phuket, at 9:00am for a 10:00am departure. You will sail through the southern end of Phang Nga Bay around the top of Koh Yao Noi to spend the evening at anchor at Relai Beach, Krabi.

Day 2

The morning is spent sailing past the Phi Phi Islands to Koh Lanta.

Day 3

It's an early start for the long sail to Koh Rok.

Day 4

Another longish sail back to Koh Lipe, with it's unique beauty and atmosphere.

Day 5

Sail over to Koh Taratoa for lunch and then onto Koh Bulon for the night.

Day 6

We sail further north past the beautiful islands of Trang to spend the night at Koh Mak.

Day 7

We sail up to anchor at the famous Phi Phi Islands with a chance to go ashore and explore the famous Tonsai nightlife.

Day 8

Another early morning start and around to Maya Bay, made famous in the movie The Beach, then sail to spend the night at a quiet beach at Koh Yao Yai.

Day 9

A late morning start to sail back to Yachtpro's sailing base in the early afternoon.....plenty of time to get to the airport or unwind on a beach.

The Itinerary – South-West Season (May - Oct)

Due to the less predictable nature of the weather in this season, we try to sail the program below but cannot always guarantee it due to the weather and prevailing seas. This season has less available anchorages so we need flexibility to ensure safety so we may end up spending the occasional night in un-programmed anchorages.....adding to the adventure.
